Mr.D.R.More, A.P.P. for the State.

CORAM : R.S. MOHITE,J.
DATED : 09/1/2006.

P.C.

1. This is an appeal filed by the State impugning a judgment and order dated 23.7.2004 passed by the 7th Adhoc Asstt.Sessions Judge, Pune acquitting the accused for offence punishable under Section 498A and 306 of the I.P.C. On perusing the impugned judgment and order, it appears that cogent and acceptable reasons are given for the acquittal. The complainant in his statement to the police stated that he had no grievance against the accused. The F.I.R. is thereafter lodged after delay of 20- days. The Trial Court has observed that the complainant had admitted that his deceased daughter Navneet used to write letters to him from the house of the accused. Those letters were not produced by the complainant to support the story of harassment. In the circumstances, not a fit case for interference. Hence, leave refused. Consequently, the appeal stands dismissed.
